CITY OF CLEVELAND
Mayor Justin M. Bibb

Welcome!

Dear Clevelanders,

The City of Cleveland's Neighborhood Resource & Recreation Centers (NRRC's) provide resources in the neighborhood for recreational, social, cultural, and other support services. This fall 2023 program guide provides a list of programs and services available to members of the entire family across the city's 22 Neighborhood Resource & Recreation Centers.

As we get ready for fall and continue to promote optimal wellness for all Clevelanders, I encourage you to review this program guide and take advantage of the opportunities available to you and your family. Opportunities in STEM, the arts, workforce training, and fitness are right in the heart of your neighborhood or in another community across the city.

Additionally, the social support services staff located in the NRRC's are available to assist you with any challenges you may be facing at this time. These services include referral support, benefits advocacy, and short-term counseling.

My administration is committed to creating desirable connections in your neighborhood and throughout Cleveland for everyone to enjoy.

The city will do all that we can to provide ample high-quality programming for children, youth, adults, and seniors as we build a stronger, safer, and healthier Cleveland for all.

Sincerely,

Justin M. Bibb
Mayor, City of Cleveland

Mission Statement

We are committed to improving the quality of life in the City of Cleveland by strengthening our neighborhoods, delivering superior services, embracing the diversity of our citizens, and making Cleveland a desirable, safe city in which to live, work, raise a family, shop, study, play and grow old.

Program Offerings Overview

In an effort to offer accessible, high-quality, and interactive programming, the City of Cleveland's Office of Prevention, Intervention and Opportunity (PIO) and the Division of Recreation will continue to offer virtual and in-person activities in our NRRCs. All programs and activities center around six (6) areas: Youth and Adult Education; Job and Career Readiness; Health and Wellness; Youth Leadership Development, Mentorship and Community Service; the Arts; and Sports and Recreation. In addition, each NRRC will continue to offer traditional daily programs and activities.

► Virtual Programs

The City of Cleveland offers free virtual programs for City of Cleveland residents ages 5 and above. The City has selected Zoom as the platform to use for most program offerings. Virtual programming enables residents an opportunity to engage in live, interactive programs from the safety and comfort of their homes. See the Virtual Programs section of this brochure for more information about the programs available.

Individuals interested in participating in one or more of the City's virtual programs, must register in order to be provided access. Please be advised that each program can only accommodate a limited number of participants, so registration is required. See the Registration Process section of the brochure for information pertaining to the registration process.

Please note: A parent or guardian must be present during virtual programming if a child under the age of 13 is a program participant.*

► In-Person Programs

The City of Cleveland offers a variety of free in-person classes that will be hosted at several NRRCs for residents ages 5 and up.

Please note that these NRRC programs are designed to assist each participant in achieving his/her potential. These classes are progressive, so each class builds upon the previous class session. Participants will use the knowledge and skills they gain in each class session to further their development. In order to get the maximum benefit from these programs, registrants are strongly advised and encouraged to attend each class session. See the In-Person Programs/Classes section of this brochure for information about programs available.

Individuals interested in participating in one or more of the City's in-person programs must register in order to be provided access. Please be advised that each program can only accommodate a limited number of participants, so registration is required. See the Registration Process section of the brochure for information pertaining to the registration process.

Please note: Children under the age of 8 must be accompanied by an adult.*

► Daily NRRC Programs and Activities

(Arts and Crafts, Weight Training, Fitness, Baseball/Basketball Skills etc.):

The City of Cleveland's NRRCs offer several free daily activities and access to program rooms for residents ages 8 and up. For a complete list of the daily programs and activities available at your NRRC, please contact your NRRC directly.

Cultural Exploration through Art

(Art House)

CULTURAL EXPLORATIONS SERIES – These family workshops celebrate the cultural diversity of Cleveland through the visual arts. Workshops are designed to educate participants about cultural traditions they may already know as well as those they may not know. These include the Day of the Dead, the Mexican tradition of celebrating ancestors; Dwali, the Indian Festival of Light; the Chinese New Year and more. The goal of the series is to promote cross-cultural understanding and tolerance. This workshop series is designed for participants ranging from age 5 to adult. Both individual and group projects will be included in the series.

College Now! (Preparing for Post-Secondary Opportunities) (College Now Cleveland)

College Now, in partnership with the City of Cleveland, supports student growth and development through the College & Career Exploration program. The College & Career Exploration program focuses on helping increase students' awareness of the college going process and the opportunities available to them, so that they can create their best-fit post-secondary plans.

This program is available to students in grades 6th through 12th grade and will be offered for 4-5 weeks, occurring at various Rec Centers throughout the city. The College Now Instructors facilitate student college & career research and exploration to ensure strategic and tactile postsecondary access and financial planning; instructors also provide both ACT and SAT General Overviews and Strategy Overviews as well as registration assistance for those who request it. The sessions are facilitated two times per week, giving students the opportunity to engage, ask questions, and map out future potential opportunities.

Each day, food and drink is provided to all participants, usually pizza! Students who attend the program are eligible to attend an all-expense-paid College Now College & Career Exposure trip.

Note: this is contingent upon travel restrictions due to COVID19.
