6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. Black History Month – From politics and civil rights... To culture and the arts. Cleveland has long been at the forefront of black leadership. This month, TV20 marks the beginning of black history month – looking back and honoring the role our city continues to play in black excellence. 2. Tanisha’s Law – The story of Tanisha Anderson sparked questions about how EMS responds to mental health crises. Now, after years of advocacy and delays, the city says change is moving from promise to practice. City council has approved what’s known as Tanisha’s Law, reshaping how emergency calls involving mental health are handled. 3. CMSD Online Portal – A reminder that Cleveland Metropolitan School District’s online portal is now open for

	families to pick schools for their students. Parents and guardians of CMSD students have until February 27th to enroll. Here's a look at everything you need to know before that deadline. 4. Job Fair &amp; Open House – If you’re looking for a job, the city of Cleveland is holding a job fair and open house. Attendees will have the opportunity to discover what different city departments do and explore career openings at every level. Bring your resume to be considered for current or future openings. February 18th from 11am to 2pm at public auditorium downtown. 5. Employment with Animal Care &amp; Control – Bruce Campbell, Cleveland Animal Care &amp; Control Division Manager says the City of Cleveland is looking for a full time Animal Vet. 6. Amy Dubois Barnett Book Release – TV20 visited the Martin Luther King Jr branch of Cleveland Public Libraries – for their “Standing on Legacy” event. The event commemorates the first anniversary of the grand opening for the branch. And after that celebration, the library presented it’s At the Table series... This time, with author, Amy Dubois Barnett. Cleveland was one of the stops on her book tour, for her debut novel, “If I Ruled the World.”
