6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. Setup: Irishtown Bend Stabilization – An update on the Irishtown Bend Park which aims to connect downtown and Cleveland neighborhoods to the Cuyahoga River and Lake Erie. Led by the Port of Cleveland project is aimed at transforming the hillside that stretches from West 25th St. between the Superior Detroit Bridge and Columbus Rd... Into a 23-acre public park and community amenity. 2. Lunar New Year Celebration – Lunar New Year is one of the most widely celebrated holidays in Asia and within Asian American communities throughout the U.S. Celebrations last around 15 days and are full of family reunions, red decorations, and

		fireworks – all honoring the calendar’s arrival of spring. 3. Soul of the City – It’s a brand-new exhibit at the airport that highlights black creativity in Cleveland during the 1960s and 70s. The exhibit shows powerful forces that helped launch black music from local neighborhoods all the way to national audiences. 4. Changes to Taxes – Changes are coming to how you send and receive money from the federal government. TV20 sat down with the Manager of Financial Empowerment within the City of Cleveland – to learn more about these changes and how it may affect you. 5. Cleveland Entrepreneurs – Cleveland entrepreneurs are learning everything they need to know about how to grow their businesses. And they’re doing it through a city offered program. The turner construction management course is taught by experienced construction professionals.
6:30 AM	CONVERSATIONS WITH CAL	Cal sits down with local author, activist, and trendsetter, Shalida Askanazi. The two discuss Cleveland, disability rights, and Shalida gets candid about what readers can expect from her new novel, “That Girl’s in a Wheelchair”.

7:00 AM	FOOD FOR THOUGHT	On this episode of Food for Thought, host Dan Monroe learns about Clothes and Shoes for Kids, one of the many partners at the Greater Cleveland Food Bank's Community Resource Center. Shoes and Clothes for Kids provides new items for kids in need so they can feel confident going to school. Dan also learns about the nutritional benefits of onions before using them in a recipe for stuffed peppers.
7:30 AM	BEYOND THE BOOKS	In January's episode of Beyond the Books, TV20 visits the Martin Luther King Jr. campus of Cleveland Public Libraries.
