TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. Learn to Play Hockey – We have rec centers in our city that are introducing the sport to kids and adults interested in trying it out. TV20 visited Halloran Skating Park during one of the “Learn to Play Hockey” programs. 2. St. Patrick’s Day Countdown – TV20’s Dan Monroe shares his experience and history covering and walking in the parade here in Cleveland, giving his personal take on what the holiday means to him and some tips on what people can expect coming to downtown. 3. Permit Portal – There’s now a clearer, more transparent process for Clevelanders to request a permit online. An online portal now let’s citizens track the progress of their permit request, step by step.

4. Collinwood Fire Commemoration – TV20 was at Memorial Elementary School for the anniversary event of the Collinwood School fire in March of 1908. At the time, the school was named “Lakeview Elementary School.” It was one of the deadliest school disasters in our country’s history.

5. State of the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center Event – Civic leaders, funders, and community partners were there to hear and provide updates on the landscape of sexual violence response in Cleveland and Northeast Ohio. They also shared their vision for what the future of care looks like for survivors.

6. Swimming Lessons at Rec Centers – It’s an important and potentially life-saving skill... But a lot of us don’t know how to do it! TV20 spoke with Jim Clark, the Deputy Commissioner of Aquatics for the City of Cleveland – about swimming lessons offered through the American Red Cross.

7. Employment Segment: Fifth Third Bank – Fifth Third Bank wants you to know they’re hiring. Learn more about what types of positions are available.

8. Turner Construction Program – TV20 News has been telling you about the Turner Construction Management Program, offered in partnership with the city. It teaches Cleveland entrepreneurs what they need to know about how to grow their businesses.

6:30 AM	CONVERSATIONS WITH CAL	From working on cars, to working in medicine: in this new episode of Conversations with Cal, we meet Dr. Carl Allamby. The Clevelander owned his own auto shop for 25 years before deciding to go back to school to become a doctor, graduating med school at age 47. Now, Dr. Allamby works in emergency medicine for Cleveland Clinic. He discusses the challenges and lessons he experienced during that pivot, and shares words of encouragement with others who may think it's too late to accomplish their goals.
7:00 AM	FUTURE OF BURKE AIRPORT PANEL DISCUSSION	For years, Clevelanders have debated what to do with Burke Lakefront Airport. Should it remain a private airport? Or should it be redeveloped into something else? Mayor Bibb, Councilman Charles Slife, and other officials weighed in on the potential future of the airport. Recorded and hosted by Ideastream Public Media.
8:30 AM	CLEVELAND CITY COUNCIL MEETING	Replay of the Cleveland City Council Meeting from March 9, 2026.
9:45 AM	BEYOND THE BOOKS	In this episode of Beyond the Books, Kierra Cotton learns that jobs at Cleveland Public Libraries go beyond librarians. This episode explores all the different positions that help keep the city's branches up and running, and let's Clevelanders know what skills they need if they're interested in working for Cleveland Public Libraries.
