6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. St. Patrick’s Day Recap – It was a cold one! TV20’s Dan Monroe gives his thoughts on the 2026 Cleveland St. Patrick’s Day Parade and tells viewers how they can still watch the parade in case they missed it. 2. Literacy Camp – The city is holding its first “Spring Literacy and Stem Camp” at three rec departments this spring break. It’s happening March 23rd through 27th and there’s still time to register. The goal is for first through third graders to get some learning in during spring break – by taking part in reading and stem activities – while also having some fun. 3. Employment Segment: Sisters of Economic Action – Professional development opportunities are available with the Sisters of Economic Action. TV20 sat down with the

Executive Director & President, Belle Espinal. If you're looking for growth opportunities and want to focus on financial empowerment.....The Sisters of Economic Action may be your answer.

4. Junior Mayors Program – The Junior Mayor's Association is a program designed to inspire and empower students to make positive changes in their community. Students get the chance to experience what it's like to be a mayor... They get to learn about the challenges and benefits of local leadership... And they get to meet city leaders to discover how local government works.

5. Climate Summit – The 2026 NEO Youth Climate Summit took place in downtown Cleveland, giving young people a chance to tackle climate change together. The student-led conference happened at the Huntington Convention Center where eighth through twelfth graders gathered to learn and take action.

6. Delta Sigma Theta Wellness Fair – The Greater Cleveland Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is hosting a free Community Wellness Day on March 28th from 10am to 2pm at the Friendly Inn Settlement (2386 Unwin Road, Cleveland, OH). The event is open to the public, no registration is required, and it will feature health screenings, mental health resources, and family activities.

		7. Zumba at Collinwood – If you’re looking for a way to get moving and be part of a community at the same time... How about Zumba classes at your local rec center? Zumba is all about having fun with dancing, & hip hop. It’s a little bit of everything just to keep moving and have fun. 8. Mayor to Mayor – Former U.S. Secretary of Transportation and former Mayor of South Bend, Indiana... Pete Buttigieg joined Mayor Justin Bibb for a special Mayor to Mayor conversation in Cleveland. They reflected on Cleveland’s progress and the continued revitalization of the industrial Midwest overall... And explored how strong local leadership and innovation in cities across America are helping to shape the future.
6:30 AM	CLEVELAND HEALTH	On this episode of Cleveland Health, host Richard Stewart highlights American Heart Month. He speaks with a Cleveland man who suffered a heart attack at age 29 about the lessons learned and what he wants others to know from his experience. Richard also separates fact from fiction regarding at-home workouts during winter months. And Tanisha's Law becomes official in the City of Cleveland. Richard learns how the law will change responses to people experiencing a mental health emergency.
7:00 AM	2026 CLEVELAND ST. PATRICK’S DAY PARADE	It was a cold, but fun and festive day! TV20 Cleveland was your only source to view the whole parade as it marched down Superior Avenue. You can also watch the 2026 St. Patrick’s

		Day Parade on TV20 Cleveland's YouTube page.
8:00 AM	CITY CLUB PRESENTS: 2026 HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE CHAMPIONSHIP	For more than two decades, The City Club of Cleveland has hosted the annual High School Debate Championship. Every year, the top two area high school debaters square off in a classic "Lincoln-Douglas" style debate at a Friday forum. This allows the debaters to compete—not only for the judges and audience in the room—but also for our radio and television audiences.
9:00 AM	PULSE OF THE CITY: 50 YEARS OF CLEVELAND EMS	For five decades, Cleveland Emergency Medical Service has been the lifeline of our city, responding to emergencies and saving lives. This TV20 documentary tells the story of how Cleveland EMS began, evolved, and continues to serve as the pulse of the city through innovation, compassion, and dedication.
9:45 AM	BEYOND THE BOOKS	In this episode of Beyond the Books, Kierra Cotton learns that jobs at Cleveland Public Libraries go beyond librarians. This episode explores all the different positions that help keep the city's branches up and running, and let's Clevelanders know what skills they need if they're interested in working for Cleveland Public Libraries.
