TIME	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. Mayor Bibb Oath of Office – In a ceremony held in the red room of Cleveland City Hall, at the stroke of midnight January 5th, Cleveland Mayor Justin M. Bibb was sworn in for his second term. 2. Council Swearing-In Ceremony – Cleveland City Council welcomed three new members. Austin Davis of Ward Seven, Nikki Hudson of Ward Eleven, and Tanmay Shah of Ward 12 were sworn into council. The newcomers join re-elected members like Council President Blaine Griffin. The council reduced from 17 to 15 members due to population shifts. 3. CMSD Online Portal Opens – Cleveland Metropolitan School District has opened its online portal to allow families to pick schools for their students. Parents and guardians of

CMSD students have until February 27th to enroll.

4. New Year Finances – Tips and Tricks on how to stay within your budget for the New Year.

5. Your Day in Court – A traffic ticket, a misdemeanor criminal case, or even a first appearance for a felony arraignment... Walking into court can be intimidating. And not knowing the process only makes the anxiety worse. The Cleveland Municipal Court wants you to be ready to navigate the justice center.

6. Cleveland Sports Hall of Fame – It was a long time coming, but there is finally a Greater Cleveland Sports Hall of Fame. We'll give you a sneak peek inside ahead of its opening.

7. Saddles and Service – For generations, Cleveland's Mounted Police Unit has been a steady presence on city streets – combining tradition and training in a way only a horse-officer partnership can. TV20 takes viewers inside Cleveland's Mounted Police Unit to explore its history, the process of training a horse for police work, and the unique bond between officer and horse. From downtown patrols, to parades and presidential inaugurations, Saddles and Service highlights a lesser-seen side of policing in Cleveland that's rooted in community connection, approachability, and trust.
