6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. Hoops After Dark Finals – Hoops after dark has ended for the season after an exciting championship game at rocket arena. There’s more to Hoops After Dark than just playing basketball. So much more is offered to the young men that could potentially be life changing. 2. Community Baby Shower – Over at the Friendly Inn Settlement House, expectant moms and families were able to leave a community baby shower with helpful resources, support, and baby items. 3. New Police Headquarters Final Beam Goes Up – As the new police headquarters is being built, TV20 cameras were there as the final beam was officially put in place. Numerous dignitaries and city councilmembers, were present.

4. CMSD New Health Clinics –

Cleveland Metropolitan School District celebrated the opening of a health clinic inside another one of its schools...this time, at Anton Grdina.

5. Fathers Walk – Also at Anton Grdina

– the 20th annual Fathers Walk took place across Cleveland Metropolitan School District. Fathers, grandfathers, uncles, brothers, and male role models walked hand in hand with students.

6. Edra Soto New Public Art – There's something new to celebrate in the Clark Fulton neighborhood. A sculptural outdoor bus shelter – created by artist Edra Soto – now sits at the corner of Scranton Rd. and Southpointe Dr. The work stands as a tribute to the neighborhood, home to Cleveland's largest Puerto Rican and Latino communities.

7. Kym Whitley Lifetime Achievement

– Its lights, cameras, and action at the Greater Cleveland Urban Film Festival in Shaker Square at Shaker Square Cinemas. The 14-year-old festival provides a platform for independent film makers, screen writers, and actors from the African diaspora in greater Cleveland. The fest features screenings, workshops, and awards. This year they are honoring Cleveland's own Kym Whitley.

8. Pickle Fest – Cleveland's annual Pickle Fest returned for a day of pickles, music, and fun at Mall-C in downtown. TV20 checked out the vendors, food trucks, pickle eating contests and more.

6:30 AM	CONVERSATIONS WITH CAL	On this episode, host Cornell Calhoun III sits down with Cleveland native Brittany Bailey Gilbert, Film Production Executive for Netflix. Brittany's inspiring journey began at the Rainey Institute and continued through her time at the Cleveland School of the Arts, shaping her love for the arts and storytelling. She discusses her path through college, the challenges, and lessons of freelancing, and how perseverance, talent, and passion led her to her current role at Netflix.
7:00 AM	BEYOND THE BOOKS	Beyond the Books, where we explore the past, present, and future of Cleveland's diverse hubs of education – In celebration of September being library card month, learn how to sign up for a new card and we talk with various library officials about what to expect, and all the resources available to you with your new card.
7:30 AM	CLEVELAND HEALTH	The show where we tackle the health issues that matter the most to Cleveland neighborhoods. In this episode we first visit Neighborhood Family Practice to talk about the importance of breast-feeding awareness and their lactation support program. Then, Cleveland Clinic's eye care mobile unit is explored. We also sit down with the Care Alliance Center president, to talk about resources to build a stronger, healthier Cleveland.
