6:00 AM	TV20 NEWS	1. SNAP Press Conference – As many lose SNAP benefits for November, the City of Cleveland and other leaders held a press conference. County Executive Chris Ronayne announced more than $600,000 will be available in food assistance for residents. 2. Modular Homes Pilot Program – Four manufacturers selected through a competition process, are now installing modular homes in the city. The city partnered with Habitat for Humanity for this off-site construction housing pilot program. 3. Halloran Park Mini Pitch – There’s a brand-new amenity at Cleveland’s Halloran Park. This is a mini pitch... A field that’s artificial turf or a hard surface surrounded by a rebound board system with integrated goals.

It includes lighting, fencing, goals, benches, ADA-compliant access, and lockable storage.

4. Cleveland Employment: West Side Catholic Center

– The Westside Catholic Center has been here 48 years and provides 35 services to the community including a workforce development program. It also has shelter. The workforce development program gives people a fresh start and prepares them to go back to work.

5. In-School Health Clinic Opens

– Another Cleveland school receives a health clinic, this time at John F. Kennedy High School, giving students, staff, and community members the opportunity to see a doctor without even leaving school.

6. Sewer District Cost Saving

Programs – The Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District has a program to help with utility bills and other ways to save money.

7. Youth Summit

– This year's Thriving Youth Series has wrapped up. The series ended with the Youth Summit at CMSD'S Arnold Pinkney East Professional Center. The goal was to celebrate student leadership.

8. CHIF Senior Housing

Groundbreaking – TV20 was at the groundbreaking for Walton Apartments, a project with the goal of giving older residents in the Clark-

		Fulton neighborhood an affordable place to call home. The 52-unit affordable housing project is exclusively for people aged 55 and older.
