Mayor Frank G. Jackson Issues Statement Regarding Retirement of KeyBank CEO Beth Mooney

CLEVELAND - Mayor Frank G. Jackson today issued the following statement congratulating KeyBank CEO Beth Mooney on her plans to retire:

“I want to congratulate Beth Mooney on her plans to retire in 2020. Ms. Mooney is a proven and tenacious leader, community partner and friend. She has positioned her company for success and invested in Cleveland and its people. She is a corporate leader, a philanthropic partner and an asset to the region. We will keep working with Ms. Mooney until her departure and I look forward to continuing our partnership with KeyBank under the leadership of her successor Chris Gorman.”
