18 New Confirmed Coronavirus Cases Reported in Cleveland

The Cleveland Department of Public Health (CDPH) has been notified of 18 more confirmed cases of coronavirus in city residents. This brings the total to 5,747 confirmed cases in the City of Cleveland and 148 fatalities. The new confirmed cases include males and females whose ages range from their teens to their 70s. CDPH is working to identify their close contacts who would require testing or monitoring for COVID-19 symptoms. Two previously reported cases were transferred from CDPH as it was determined the individuals were not from the City of Cleveland.

As of today, there are 161,678 confirmed cases and 4,709 fatalities in the State of Ohio. There are more than 7.83 million confirmed cases and 215,549 deaths in the U.S.

Reminder: The City of Cleveland will disseminate Saturday and Sunday COVID-19 numbers on its Facebook and Twitter pages when they become available.

The City of Cleveland COVID-19 Dashboard displays the most recent preliminary data from the Ohio Department of Health about COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations, deaths and recoveries in Cleveland by selected demographics. View the dashboard here. For individuals' privacy, CDPH will not be releasing any additional demographic info related to COVID-19 cases aside from age range and gender.

Join Free Sustainable Cleveland Virtual Summit on Oct. 14 – Oct. 15, 2020

The Sustainable Cleveland 2020 Virtual Summit will take place on Wednesday, October 14 – Thursday, October 15. The Summit will bring together people from all walks of life to support sustainability efforts in the City of Cleveland. Over the past ten years, Mayor Frank G. Jackson's Sustainable Cleveland initiative has supported collaboration and action to make Cleveland a greener, cleaner place to live, work and play for all.

“We must also identify solutions to eliminate inequities, disparities and racism through Wealth creation and Job and career opportunities. One key way of doing this is to keep more of our spending in our local economy. A Self-Help Procurement Initiative will have a significant impact on wealth building locally,” Mayor Jackson said. “By taking a portion of the billions of dollars that the public and private sector spends, and redirecting them into our local economy, we can expand business opportunities, support existing businesses and create wealth among those who have been traditionally left out and create and sustain jobs.”

The Summit will celebrate the many people and organizations that have gotten us this far, and build off this foundation for even greater progress. This year's Summit will include a keynote presentation from Dr. Julian Agyeman, Professor of Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning at Tufts University. In this dynamic keynote presentation, Dr. Agyeman will outline the concept of 'just sustainabilities' as a response to the 'equity deficit' of much sustainability thinking and practice. He will explore his contention that who can belong in our cities will ultimately determine what our cities can become. He will illustrate his ideas with examples from urban planning and design, urban agriculture and food justice, and the concept of sharing cities. For Dr. Agyeman's full bio, please visit: <https://julianagyeman.com>.

“This year's summit expands on the great discussions from last year about what's next for Sustainable Cleveland and how the community and other stakeholders can help shape our goals for years to come,” said Chief of Sustainability Jason Wood. “No matter if you started attending in 2009 or are a first time attendee, all Clevelanders are welcome to participate in this important event.”

In addition to the keynote address, the free two-day event will include informative breakout sessions, facilitated discussions on key priorities going forward, awards, recognitions and much more. Scheduled remarks include:

- Mayor Jackson, opening remarks at 9:30 a.m.;
- Chief of Sustainability, Jason Wood at 9:35 a.m.; and
- Dr. Julian Agyeman, keynote address at 11 a.m. – noon.

CDPH Epidemiologist Resigns

The City of Cleveland today announces it has received the resignation of CDPH epidemiologist, Sheena Fryerson. Fryerson's last day of employment is Oct. 16, 2020. The vacant position will be posted within the next two weeks.

This announcement follows several significant staffing changes and reassignments to the CDPH made by Mayor Frank G. Jackson as a result of the City's investigation into the department's operating structure and culture. This investigation included a thorough review of the re-opening of an Equal Employment Opportunity complaint, the loss of the HIV/STI grant, a review of the vacancies, hiring and attrition within CDPH, and employee morale and culture. Other Important Reminders

City of Cleveland Now Accepting Requests for the Tree Canopy Revitalization Program

The City of Cleveland announces its Tree Canopy Revitalization Program. As part of this program the City is now accepting requests from property owners for a free tree installation during the spring and fall planting seasons.

Property owners can complete an online request form to have a tree planted on their tree lawn, in front of occupied structures or sidewalk cut-outs typically found in commercial areas in front of businesses. Each location will be surveyed in person by a Field Operations Forester to ensure there are no conflicts with the surrounding infrastructure and that the site is suitable. Approved sites are then added to a list for a tree to be planted during the next available planting season. All requests are handled on a first-come, first-served basis.

The Tree Canopy Revitalization Program was created in support of Mayor Frank G. Jackson's tree planting initiative, in which he pledged up to $1 million a year to replenish the city's tree canopy. To request a tree or to learn more, click here.

City of Cleveland Announces Halloween Plans

The City of Cleveland strongly encourages residents not to participate in trick-or-treating this year as a result of the coronavirus pandemic. However, if residents choose to trick-or-treat or pass out candy, the permitted hours in the City of Cleveland are from 6-8 p.m. They are asked to adhere to the regulations outlined in the Ohio Department of Health's "Celebrating Halloween" guidelines which include the following:

- Always wear a face covering and stay 6 feet away from people who are not from your household, whether trick-or-treating, passing out treats or attending attractions or events.
- A costume mask is not a substitute for a cloth mask. A costume mask should not be used unless it is made of two or more layers of breathable fabric that covers the mouth and nose and doesn't leave gaps around the face.
- Do not wear a costume mask over a protective cloth mask because it can be dangerous if the costume mask makes it hard to breathe. Instead, consider using a Halloween-themed cloth mask.

- If you may have COVID-19 or may have been exposed to someone with COVID-19, you should not participate in in-person Halloween festivities and should not give out candy to trick-or-treaters.
- Carry hand sanitizer and use it often, especially after coming into contact with frequently touched surfaces and before eating candy.
- If taking your children trick-or-treating, limit the number of houses you visit and ask your children to stay as far from treat-givers as possible. For small children, consider holding the bag for them.
- Wipe off candy wrappers with sanitizing wipes when you arrive home. (NOTE: Never wipe unpackaged food with wipes.)

In an effort to provide children in Cleveland's neighborhoods with an alternative to traditional trick-or-treating, the City will be offering grab-and-go candy bags. This is in lieu of our annual Big City Boo event, which we must regretfully cancel this year. Participants seeking candy bags will be required to wear masks, maintain six feet of social distancing and follow posted guidelines and directional signage.

The candy bags will be at the 18 open City of Cleveland Neighborhood Resource and Recreation Centers (NRRCs) on October 30 from 6-7 p.m. or until all bags are given out. All of the NRRCs will supply candy bags with the exception of the following: Halloran, Stella Walsh, Sterling, Hamilton, Kovacic and Camp Forbes. Please note: candy bags will be given out on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Calls Regarding COVID-19 Complaints

With the passage by Cleveland City Council of an ordinance authorizing penalties for non-compliance with Mayor Jackson's mask mandate, enforcement is now in effect.

There are two numbers Clevelanders should call regarding non-compliance:

- Business complaints: CDPH hotline at (216) 857-7165
- Individual or private residence complaints: Cleveland Police non-emergency line at (216) 621-1234

Cleveland City Council recently approved the mandatory use of masks in public spaces as well as certain penalties for individuals and businesses that do not comply. On July 3, Mayor Jackson signed an amended order mandating the use of masks in public in the City of Cleveland to slow the spread of the highly contagious coronavirus. This includes mandatory use in bars, restaurants, shared office settings, rideshares and other shared spaces.

Citations may be issued with fines for the following:

- Any business or person violating the mask or safe-seating order (which maintains social distancing of at least six feet between patrons) is subject to civil penalties in accordance with Ordinance No. 556-2020, specifically chapters 602 and 236.
- Any business in the City of Cleveland with an employee who becomes ill with the coronavirus is required to immediately disinfect and sanitize the premises. Following a warning, they may be subject to a civil penalty of $1,000 for the first offense and a civil penalty of $3,000 for each subsequent violation.
